Get six months on us!

(Up to a $7,200 value)

It's like getting an always-on, behind-the-scenes assistant at no cost.

Link AI is a subscription-based software service that works with most dental practice management systems (PMS). It supports the business side of dentistry—from communications, scheduling appointments and follow-ups, to day-to-day administrative tasks and real-time analytics. Think of it as your always on, behind-the-scenes assistant that helps keep things moving efficiently—24/7. And right now, you can try Link AI for six months at no charge. If you decide to add Link AI to your team, you can right-size your services with three subscription level options.

Q&As–Link AI for A-dec+ Six-Month Trial

QUESTION	ANSWER
Will I need a credit card on file to start my six-month trial?	Yes, a credit card is required to start your six-month free trial. During checkout, you'll enter your card details and apply your promotion code to activate the trial. You won't be charged during the six months, and your subscription will automatically renew at the standard rate once the trial ends. You can cancel any time before then to avoid charges.
Is renewal through my dealer or through A-dec directly?	Renewal is handled directly through the Link AI Interface. With a credit card on file, your subscription will auto-renew, and you'll be notified in advance of the renewal date.
Do I need to give 30-day notice to cancel? Are there cancelation fees?	You can cancel your six-month trial with 30 days' notice. There is no cancellation fee.
Who do I contact for support?	A-dec has a knowledgeable team assembled for Link AI technical support that includes a dedicated Link AI representative, with expertise in technical platform access and configuration support. Your A-dec Customer Service team is available to answer your questions at 1.800.547.1883.
What PMS systems does Link AI Integrate with?	Link AI is currently compatible with Dentrix, Open Dental, Denticon, and Curve Dental.
Do I need A-dec+ or A-dec Pro to use Link AI?	No. Link AI works independently and doesn't require either product. However, pairing it with A-dec Pro enhances the experience and it unlocks the A-dec+ intercom feature, giving front office staff added functionality.
